The graph shows the relationship between $R^2$ and Noise Level ($\sigma^2$) for different models: PBR, LWR, and LR. As the noise level increases, the $R^2$ decreases for all models, with PBR maintaining a higher $R^2$ compared to LWR and LR.