

CoC Undergrads Win Research Awards for Summer

(Atlanta, April 10, 2008) The College of Computing would like to congratulate the following students for receiving a Summer 2008 President's Undergraduate Research Award (PURA). In each case, the student will receive a salary to do research on a project.

Daniel Miller, Computational Media

The Online Community Grid

Faculty mentor: David Bader, of Computational Science and Engineering

Moon Logan, Computer Science

Interactive Visualization of I/O System for Supercomputing Applications

Faculty mentor: Ada Gavrilovska, of Computing Science and Systems

Corbin Pon, Computer Science

The Level of Mobile Telephony in the Population of Migrant Workers in Shanghai, China

Faculty mentor: Michael Best, of International Affairs

Jared Caldwell, Computational Media

Real Time Virtual Cinema Camera

Faculty mentor: Michael Nitsche, of Literature, Communication and Culture

Krzysztof Jurgowski, Computer Science

My Paris Year, the Second Life Manifestations: Creating "Spaces" for the Georgia Tech Digital Poetry Initiative

Faculty mentor: Karen J. Head, of Literature, Communication and Culture

Martin Rojas, Computational Media

Machinima: A Procedural and Multi-Input Approach to Emergent Game Play

Faculty mentor: Michael Nitsche, of Literature, Communication and Culture