Subject: [cc-undergraduateacademics] Alert: Last day to change or declare threads

Dear Students,

This is the final reminder to check or declare your threads today!

CS and CX 3000-4000 level classes will be restricted by threads during phase I registration. Advisors and the CoC administration will not make any exceptions for course access.

See the original message below and check or declare your threads now. You can use the link provided if you need to change or view your threads.

Sincerely,

*****
