AI
Artificial intelligence research problems
learning
human knowledge
theory intelligence
edit researchers
Main
reasoning
machine
problem
networks
also many systems
computer
agent
machines algorithms
logic
solve system number optimization
neural
used science developed solving applications
one find uses calculus
known require computers
Machine
field
algorithm decision
methods
skills
language
time
actions
given early 1980s
called strong may Newell
software based planning related progress
Knowledge
include rather beings
people
world
work simulate simulated symbolic specific approaches Logic
success
true expert
well widely cybernetics
paradigm
difficult control
forms uncertain
began robot
know
humans
Many
form
required
able search examples central economics
others
programming
network
source recognition
results
mind representation
general
tools
example must engineering artificial use using agents technology described
tests
data
new objects
article mathematical
Turing
model
brain articles sub-symbolic
Simon
built processing different possible computational ability like
John
begin robotics including fiction
computation
behavior performance information
perception
manipulation